"TIGER ROSE" IS

THRILLS

By FRED J. McISAAC

For several years the Canadian Northwest, with its picturesque wooded mountain peaks, its long, level, half-bushy river valleys, its rugged and primitive and elemental pastions, has supplied a young army of fiction writers with copious material.

Ward Lock, the author of numerous novels of playboys and playgirls, a winning actor, transferred his fascinating and exotic country to the stage in "The Cavalier," which premiered at the Tremont Theatre last night.

Mr. Lockman's friend and collaborator, Mr. J. M. Barrie, the melodramatist differing from his fellow playwrights in the comparative youth of his years, introduced, Delia Blainville, a French Canadian, who has taken place one of the biggest of recent successes in the theatre, as the heroine of the play.

The play is a story of love and settling of all rough edges, and of the life of a young man who, after the usual selection of playmates, is attracted to a girl of the name of Delia.

On this week the show was given the official war and news pictures, the new J. Montgomery Flagg comedy, "Tell It to the Marines," and the photoplay, "A Woman of Impulse," picturing Lina Cavalieri.

When the Big German Drive Began Last March, Premier Lloyd George Said:

"It is a race between Wilson and Hindenburg."

WHO IS WINNING?

The armies of the Kaiser are still fighting—will you take a chance on postponing their surrender by refusing to back up the Commander-in-Chief of our Army and Navy?

REMEMBER, VOTERS, When you go to the polls TODAY, you will not be voting for Republicans or Democrats as INDIVIDUALS but for the LEADERS who will control them when they go to Congress.

"THE ISSUE IS LEADERSHIP!"

WHOSE LEADERSHIP DO YOU PREFER?

That of Senator Lodge, Senator Penrose and Colonel Roosevelt, who would dominate a Republican Majority and block the President, or the leadership of Woodrow Wilson?

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

The Republican leaders are on record against President Wilson's fourteen war aims which have been applauded by opinion throughout the world, and constitute the basis of an enduring peace. Our President's fourteen terms do not help the SELFISH classes in any country but they favor all the masses of people. They seek to put an end to WAR AND THE THINGS THAT BREED WAR.

With Colonel Roosevelt denouncing the whole basis of these peace terms and Senator Lodge rejecting all the fundamentals NOW, what could the country expect the Republican leaders to do with a peace treaty if they came into control of Congressional Committees?

Having condemned such a treaty in advance they could not ratify it without stultifying themselves. BY THEIR SPEECHES, Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Lodge have served notice on the country that they will not approve a peace treaty based on the Wilson principles of peace.

THIS IS THE ISSUE which is now squarely before the country. The people have to decide whether they will follow President Wilson or Colonel Roosevelt, whether they want a peace of liberalism and justice or a peace of imperialism, standpatism, militarism, that leaves all the old causes for war exactly where they were before we undertook to root out militarism and the rule of force and war itself.

You voters must decide these issues for yourselves and for your children. President Wilson stands for WINNING THE WAR AND DESTROYING MILITARISM AND KAISERISM.

HE INSISTS "that adequate guarantees be given and taken that national armaments will be reduced to the lowest point consistent with domestic safety." The President stands for a league of nations. This league will protect nations, large and small, and permit every people desiring freedom to determine their own destiny.

Everybody wants this except those who will profit by the older order.

The most momentous diplomatic conference in all history is now being held in France. Show the world, by your vote of confidence in President Wilson, that he speaks as President of the United States for a United Country.

Never mind what political party you are ordinarily affiliated with

THE BIG QUESTION IS:

"Are you behind your President in the most critical moment of the world's history?"

Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey have crumbled. Germany is next.

LET US STAND BEHIND OUR LEADER so that we may complete our victory and obtain a conclusive and enduring peace. DO NOT VOTE TO HAMPER THE PRESIDENT, as surely would be the result if one branch of the government is Republican and the other Democratic. President McKinley in the Spanish-American war asked for a united nation through the medium of a Republican majority, and was supported in this appeal by former President Harrison, Colonel Roosevelt, Senator Lodge, Senator Penrose, as well as Democratic voters—by the people of the country without respect to party lines.

VOTE TO SUSTAIN THE PRESIDENT who has appealed to the patriotism of Republicans as well as Democrats to consider country above party—to say whether the people shall have the leadership of President Wilson, or of his political opponents.

BACK UP YOUR PRESIDENT

who is recognized everywhere as the true spokesman of liberals and progressives throughout the world. Now that the hour when the triumph of President Wilson's program for the liberation of the world is at hand, shall our President be politically discredited?

Do not vote to embarrass the President. Hold up his hands. Vote to sustain him by electing Democratic Senators and Representatives to speak for you.

BIG INDEPENDENT REPUBLICAN VOTE FOR WALSH

I. and R. Amendment Is First on the Ballot

The first question on the ballot today in the initiative and referendum was the I. and R. amendment. It will be found in the lower left-hand corner, the first of the amendments submitted by the Constitutional Convention.

The great reform measure, which the people at last have a chance to adopt after twenty years of bitter opposition by the reactionary and standstill forces, is stated in one sentence:

"Shall the Article of Amendment relative to the establishment of the popular initiative and referendum and the legislative initiative of specific amendments of the constitution, submitted by the Constitutional Convention, be approved and ratified?"

The reactionary corporation interests which have defeated the I. and R. in the Legislature for twenty years are spending a slash fund of $150,000 to beat it now.

President Wilson advocates it. It is advocated by the forward-looking men of all political parties. Everybody wants it but the lobbyists, practical politicians and privilege-seeking corporations.

Vote Yes. Vote Yes. Vote Yes.

WOMEN WERE ACTIVE WORKERS

They acted especially in driving their husbands and other men relatives to the polls in automobiles. The election was orderly. One arrest was made up to midnight. In Ward 4 a man was taken into custody on charge of assault on a Tague worker.

The rain weather, beginning the day with rain, was welcomed by Tague workers as tending to slow up the Republicans in their vote in the country districts.

Adding special interest to today's balloting was the fact that the feature of the proposed amendment for the Initiative and Referendum and other changes in the State Constitution.

One of the lively local fights was the "Tague" contest between former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald and the Tague worker Peter F. Tague. Tague was arrested at the polls and went into the State on a stick.

As the result of a little friction in the polling place of the Tague worker, Martin P. Lee, twenty-five, of No. 103 West End, was arrested by Tague workers. McCarthy, charged with assault and battery on J. J. McCarthy, twenty-five, of No. 121 West End, was arrested at No. 121 West End, Roxbury. He is a Tague supporter, and Lee is a Tague supporter.

OFFICIAL VOTING LIST.

The official vote took place over a voting list which was being held. He was released on bail and will appear in court tomorrow.

In the precinct there had been considerable challenging on the part of Tague workers. John T. Gibbons, charged with assault and battery on Tague workers, was arrested at No. 121 West End, Roxbury. He is a Tague supporter, and Lee is a Tague supporter.

Following an appeal to the election commissioners Gibbons was later permitted to return and continue his work in behalf of Congressman Tague. Harry Lebecky, a Tague worker, asserted that he was driving the Tague workers into the polling place in the precinct when he was forced away from the poll and out of the polling place.

In the precinct, including Wards 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22, the Tague workers were in the majority. In the precinct where he was forced away from the poll and out of the polling place.

A notable fact was that many Republicans in each precinct had been out in 1910 and 1911. Considering the large number of men from the locality who are in military service, the vote was regarded as a fairly good showing.

The strength of Walsh was evidenced by the evidence to the part of many Republicans to support President Wilson by returning a candidate of his party.

EIGHT SOUTH BOSTON VOTES.

The outlook for the Initiative and Referendum in Dorchester was bright. The amendment was apparently well understood by the voters in general, as no widespread newspaper discussion. With regard to the other amendments, considerable bewilderment seemed to prevail. Many voters questioned others at the polling place to find out what the other measures meant, explaining that the English on the ballot was not clear.

Voting was light in South Boston and in the city districts. In the city districts, the Tague workers were in the majority. In the precinct where he was forced away from the poll and out of the polling place.

On the State ticket the odds were 2 to 1 that Governor R. Livingston Brockman would be re-elected, and the odds were 2 to 1 that the Republican candidate for Mayor of Boston, William W. Murphy, would be re-elected. The odds were 2 to 1 that the Republican candidate for Mayor of Boston, William W. Murphy, would be re-elected.

Only a Third of the Normal Vote Cast Up to Noon in Cambridge

By noon more than a third of the normal vote of Cambridge had been cast. Indications pointed to a large vote. City Clerk Edward J. Brandon counted several precincts and found that the vote was in the Tague column.

Interest appeared to center in three precincts, Wards 10, 11, and 12, the latter of which is in the Tague column.

In Ward 10, the Tague workers were in the majority. In the precinct where he was forced away from the poll and out of the polling place.

In Ward 11, the Tague workers were in the majority. In the precinct where he was forced away from the poll and out of the polling place.

Wilson Appeal Brings Out a Heavy Vote All Through New Hampshire

Concord, N. H., Nov. 5.—A heavy vote was cast in New Hampshire today as the result of President Wilson's appeal to the people of the country to return to Washington a Congress that would support him.

Reports from different sections of the State showed that the vote up to noon was normal in many places and above normal in others. The Democratic leaders believed that the appeal of success for their candidates, as it would take the President's mind off the war.

There were reports that the Wilson appeal was being used in Ward 4 of this city as a device to break the vote.

This is the home of George H. Brown, a candidate for the short term for United States Senate, against whom the immediate are making their biggest drive.

James J. Jackson, chairman of the State Public Safety Committee, noted that the Wilson appeal was being used in Ward 4 of this city as a device to break the vote.

LABOR FOR YES' VOTE TO AID R. AND R.

Martin T. Joyce, Secretary-Treasurer of the Massachusetts Branch of the American Federation of Labor, has issued a statement in which he declares that labor is in favor of the initiative and referendum.

He calls attention to an advertisement entitled "Workmen of Massachusetts," which appeared Sunday and Monday. He states that the advertisement was signed by Nicholas J. Kelly, Boston, as "Former Secretary-Treasurer New England Retail Clerks' Protective Association."

He declares no such organization exists. Mr. Joyce's statement says:

"This was signed by Nicholas J. Kelly, Boston, as 'Former Secretary-Treasurer New England Retail Clerks' Protective Association.' Frederick H. Bidder, Wakefield, 'Brotherhood of Railroad Station Employees,' H. P. Smith, Somerville, 'International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers,' and Joseph L. Blevins, Everett, 'Wood Workers' Union."

He declares that the truth of the matter should be known to all. He states that there is no such organization in existence as the New England Retail Clerks' Protective Association. He states that he has himself admitted, in a letter to the editor of the Boston Herald, that he is a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Station Employees, while H. P. Smith is a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. He states that he has the slightest authority to make any statement in regard to the initiative and referendum.

For the first time since he entered public life, President Wilson failed to do his duty. He stayed in Washington at the direct request of the State Department, which felt that the crisis in the peace situation with Germany was at hand and did not want to take chances of being unable to reach him in any emergency.

Germanlets Name for New Disease Among Slackers

Have you the Germanlets? It is a new disease found among slackers.

It is imagining that the Germanlets will not give up and take unconditional surrender as their due.

Army officers have given this name to all slackers.

The division headquarters officers, who are now in the camp, have named the new disease among slackers.

COMMISSION IN ARMY

Lieutenant Francis D. Weeks, of the 10th Field Artillery, and living at No. 14 Florida street, Ashcroft, has been commissioned in the United States Army. He went to the Y. M. C. A. at the time of his election.

Lieutenant

Why Voters Should Defeat Senator Weeks

Ought We Not to Remove One Who Has Opposed and Embarrassed the President?

The day following the publication of the fourteen terms of peace issued by the President, David Lloyd George, the great representative of the British empire, addressing American soldiers in France said:

President Wilson's great deliverance of yesterday made clear what we are fighting for. If the Kaiser and his advisers are prepared tomorrow to accept the conditions stated by your President he can have peace, not only with America, but also with Great Britain and France.

Arthur Henderson, former member of the British Cabinet and representative of the British labor party and of the radical intellectuals of Great Britain—the balance of power in that nation—declared before a great meeting that President Wilson was the spokesman of the British labor and the radical party. Thus both the British government and the unofficial radicals proclaim their assent to the President's policy. It was echoed with equal authority in France and Italy.

Today President Wilson stands as the greatest figure in the whole world. There is no man who will challenge that statement OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES. It is AT HOME ALONE that he is criticised and attacked by a few Republican politicians like Lodge and Weeks of Massachusetts, and Roosevelt, who wants to become Republican candidate for President next year and who is secretly enraged because he was not permitted to take control of the lives of 20,000 Americans as a general of a division when he had no military knowledge or experience worth anything.

There are two great causes for the President's leadership of the world. The first is the belief that he speaks for united America; the second is his own intellectual and moral power, which has enabled him to formulate a basis of peace which appeals to the moral intelligence of the world, and enables him also to present it with a courage and force which drives it home to the "utmost parts of the world."

If he should be repudiated by the election of a hostile Congress, one of these props, that of a united American Republic behind him, will fall, our leadership in the war will cease, and our influence at the council table in the establishment of a just and lasting peace will be greatly diminished.

In his appeal for support in this election the President says:

"I am asking for your support not for my own sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the United States itself, in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evident to all the world."

Ought we not to defeat Weeks who President Wilson declares has opposed and embarrassed him throughout the war? Ought we to forget that Jameson and Reed of New Hampshire and O'Shaunnessy of Rhode Island stand by the President?

A Tale and a Moral

A GREAT big buck Hyena once reared up his ugly snout and undertook to terrorize the creatures round about. He growled at them and snarled at them in bursts of savage wrath.

And when he met them in the woods he thrust them off the path.

And by and by he came to think that Heaven had decreed That he should rule the universe, and make it serve his need.

BECAUSE he preyed upon the weak he argued at much length

That other beasts would do the same if but they had the strength.

Because he fed on carrion he said that he was sure

That other creatures ought to share his habits and Kultur.

"A very paradise," he said, "this rolling sphere will be

When all the animals thereon are ably ruled by me."

HE bullied, bragged and bluffed his way for many leagues

Around; Broke in the dens of other brutes and stole whatever he found,

And every night he'd sit at home and chatter, hour on hour,

About the glories of his race and of his kingly power.

"I am the King of Beasts!" he cried, "Old time shall not efface

The vast and matchless glory of the great Hyena race."

AND then one day the other beasts, who'd listened quite too long, And grown a bit too weary of his bluster and his song,

Fell on the ugly-visaged brute and tore him limb from limb,

And that, so far as we can learn, became the last of him.

The moral of this little tale is added too late

To save the former rulers of the busted German State.

LET US HAND IT TO HIM

Among all the shouts and hysteres

One guy was a wise one, you bet—

The wily old King of Bulgaria

Knew when to get out of the wet.

Here's Luck to Them

The Dutch, you remember, took Holland, and now, not to be outdone, the Belgians are taking Belgium.

DON'T QUIT

Remember the soldiers are still in the camps, So keep right on buying your War Savings Stamps.

But Bill and T. R. Can't See It That Way

It would seem to an about observer that if the allies were as much satisfied with Mr. Wilson's terms as Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft say they are, they would be quite capable of objecting to them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Amendments

I notice that a small semi-political organization, headed by a veteran State House reporter, who is bitterly opposed to historical elections, is circulating a leaflet calling on the voters to vote "No" on all the nineteen amendments recommended to the people by the convention.

Many members of the convention, myself included, are in favor of annual elections of the Legislature and State executives, but it is not necessary to go to any such foolish extreme to preserve them. We can vote "No" on the seventeenth amendment without voting no on other matters which are greatly needed to do things like these which we shall need to do following the war.

The other most important amendment is the last. Our State does an annual business of $15,000,000 and does it in a most wasteful way, with loss of waste. The last amendment is mandatory upon the Legislature to revise our State business into a systematic financial organization. What would you think of a corporation that was doing business of $15,000,000 annually and yet had not controlled its methods for three hundred years?

I hope all progressive voters will vote "Yes" on 1, 2 and 19, and "No" on 14 and 17.

ROLAND D. SAWYER.

Stars and Stripes

Now it is well to give ear to the gentlemen who tell us what is to happen when the war is over.

It is as difficult to win a war as it is to keep it.

It is apparent that the bread-winners will not be able to furnish it soaked in champagne until the coming season, but the nation's war is over.

The vanishing of that German navy beats anything that ever was produced in legend.

Teutonic fighting men are because of their sense unmitigated.

GERMANY'S TERMS TO FRANCE IN 1871

By Morton Birge

THE extreme German care exercised in drawing up an armistice is well illustrated in the armistice agreements which were concluded by Jules Favre, the French Foreign Minister, and the German Chancellor, on January 28, 1871, the day Paris surrendered and practically ended the Franco-Prussian War. The document bristled with precautions in favor of Germany.

The armistice was to run twenty-one days. It contained fifteen articles. Features of it were: Belligerent armies to hold themselves at least ten kilometers (about six miles) from lines of demarcation traced to separate their positions. Similar separated zones for naval forces.

Paris outer forts surrendered to the Prussians. Fortified wall of Paris disarmed of cannon, but Germans not to enter the city. City and fort garrisons to be prisoners of war, save a force to keep order in the German zone night and day.

Now the army of the United States is within striking distance of Berlin, flying machines could go there and back easily—but they will not need to go.

You have read all the great news, including the Austrian peace terms—complete surrender. Quite a change in a few months.

Dosses of automobiles trucks bearing the Hohenzollerns' arms have been arriving at a castle in Switzerland owned by a friend of the Kaiser.

Switzerland would make the Kaiser's safest home if he could get there. In Switzerland every man is a soldier, with his gun and sword order all the year round, and if they accept a man, they protect him.

The hour glass of history is turned upside down. Voltaire fled to Switzerland to escape the power of the king. He went to Switzerland's border to visit his friend, Frederick of Prussia, who played with philosophy between wars.

Frederick's successor, the Hohenzollern of today, is sending his property to Switzerland to escape the power of the people. Let him not boast that puteth his armor on.

Did you read carefully the Kaiser's letter, in which, on behalf of the Hohenzollerns, he made reference to "Borne"?

The letter will stand as one of the great works in history. For it is the nation and the Allies make Democracy the basis of the future. The letter addressed by the Kaiser to "Your Grand Chancery," France Maximilian, will stand as the farewell word of autocracy on this planet.

King that are well behaved will survive for a while, as the vermin of the present, which will not become infested inside of us. The days of kings that rule are ended. These are the farewell words of the last autocrat.

A new order comes into force which transfers the fundamental rights of the Kaiser's person to the people. It is the dying word of autocracy.

The Kaiser says: "Thus comes to a close a period which will stand in history before the eyes of future generations."

As a matter of fact, thus comes to a close a period, the end of which marks the coming of age of the human race.

Strange and dramatic are the ending of kings. The greatest dies, like an eagle in a cage, on the rock of St. Helena. The most good-natured, moral king of France, Louis the Sixteenth, died under the guillotine's knife. St. Louis, the good king of France, his mind turned toward the Holy Land, has himself taken from his royal bed and put on a bed of ashes that he may die humbly as a Christian. Caesar is murdered when he could have been most useful. The Georges of our Colonial days die fat in bed, weak in mind. Emperor, King of Spain, Holy Roman Emperor, King of Spain, persecutes the Protestants in Spain because it pleases him, persecutes Martin Luther in Germany, to oblige his large, fat friend, Henry the Eighth, angry because the Pope won't give him a divorce. Charles Ignaz Luther to help Henry to spite the Pope.

With everything in his grasp, Charles the Fifth, fifty-five years of age, divides his kingdoms among his children, and refuses to a monarchy when he must follow his cousin, the Russian Czar, perhaps reign without violence, as does George, George of England, perhaps take up his residence in some remote land, land of hotels and travelers, there with his six sons to watch the world.

SCIENCE DEVISES NEW CRUELITIES OF WAR

May peace that is lasting soon come, for the new war would be more horrible than this. Science, turned to attention in war, has devised new engines of destruction that will crush anything as far even imagined—a gyro-electric destroyer that will crush whole armies, and that fires through backward, forward and oblique devices for burning cities and sinking ships at distances of at least ten kilometers, as described in a special article in the
